

2009 National Small Business Week Nomination Guidelines

“During Small Business Week and throughout the year, we recognize the determination and ingenuity of America’s workers and entrepreneurs who play a vital role in building a more prosperous future for our country...I call upon all Americans to observe this week with appropriate ceremonies, activities, and programs that celebrate the achievements of small business owners and their employees and encourage the development of new small businesses.”

George W. Bush
President of the United States

(2008 Small Business Week Proclamation)

Dear Supporters of America's Small Business Community:

Every year since 1963, the President has proclaimed National Small Business Week to recognize the contributions of small businesses to the economic well-being of America. Each year, the U.S. Small Business Administration recognizes this special impact made by outstanding small business owners, and by champions of America's entrepreneurs.

In 2009, National Small Business Week will honor the estimated 26.8 million small businesses in America. Small businesses are major contributors to the strength of the American economy, and their impact is huge. They represent 50 percent of the non-farm GDP. They also create 60-80 percent of new jobs in the country. Through the work of entrepreneurs, jobs are created, families are given hope for a better life, and indeed, whole communities are transformed.

During National Small Business Week, we showcase and recognize some of the most successful and inspiring of these entrepreneurs. We would ask for your assistance in finding, and nominating candidates for these awards. Please take the time over the coming weeks to identify outstanding small companies in your district and to champion them through this nomination process. Through your support of the finest candidates in your region, you will be helping our national recognition efforts immensely.

Warm regards,

Jovita Carranza
Acting Administrator

All SBA programs and services are provided on a nondiscriminatory basis.

Introduction

In recognition of the small business community's contribution to the American economy and society, the President of the United States designates one week each year as National Small Business Week. Small Business Week 2009 will be celebrated the week of May 17. Leading up to National Small Business Week (SBW), the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), often in conjunction with public- and private-sector small business supporters, will host special events at the local and state levels to honor and present awards to the nation's entrepreneurs and those who support and champion small business. Many of the award winners from those local and state events will be invited to Washington, D.C. for SBW '09 — Celebrating National Small Business Week.

SBA Awards given in celebration of National Small Business Week include the following awards:

- Small Business Person of the Year (one from each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Guam);
- Small Business Exporter of the Year;
- SBA Young Entrepreneur of the Year;
- Jeffrey Butland Family-Owned Business of the Year;
- Entrepreneurial Success Award;
- Phoenix Awards (for disaster recovery);
- Small Business Champions (individuals or organizations dedicated to supporting small businesses);
- Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year;
- Small Business Subcontractor of the Year;
- Frances Perkins Vanguard Awards (for use of women-owned businesses in government contracting);
- Dwight D. Eisenhower Awards for Excellence (for large prime contractors who use small businesses as suppliers and contractors);
- Gold Star Awards (for federal government contracting);
- Small Business Development Center (SBDC) Service Excellence and Innovation Center Award;
- 7(a) Small Business Lender of the Year (does not require nominations);
- 504 Lender of the Year (does not require nominations);
- Export Lender of the Year (does not require nominations)
- Mortgage Lender of the Year

The National Small Business Person of the Year, Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year, and Small Business Subcontractor of the Year will be announced and honored at a National event during National Small Business Week. They will be joined by government officials, corporate leaders and small businesses from around the country.

The Agency reserves the right, in its sole reasonable discretion, to remove a nominee from the selection process.

SBA Awards

The nomination and selection process, evaluation criteria and time frame for the various SBA Awards are set forth below.

Small Business Person of the Year Awards

SBA will make Small Business Person of the Year awards on the district level (in multi-district states), the State level (from each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Guam) and the National level. The National Small Business Person of the Year is selected from the State winners.

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

Any individual who owns and operates or who bears principal responsibility for operating a small business may be nominated. Partners who jointly own and operate a small business may be nominated as a “team,” so long as the number of individuals in the team nomination does not exceed four. A nominee for Small Business Person of the Year must own or operate a business defined as “small” under the applicable SBA size standards. Individuals who have received the small business person award at the state level within the past five years are not eligible. Nominees must also be residents of the United States or its territories and will be subject to background checks. Small businesses owned and operated by nominees must comply with federal civil rights laws. While receipt of SBA assistance is not required, it is preferred. Consult your nearest SBA district office if you have questions.

Who may submit nominations for this award?

Any individual or organization dedicated to the support of the small business community in the United States, including, but not limited to, trade and professional associations and business organizations, may submit nominations for the Small Business Person of the Year award. Individuals may not be nominated for more than one award category.

Where are the nominations to be sent?

Nominations must be submitted to SBA Washington Metropolitan Area District Office, 740 15th Street, N.W., 3RD Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005, Attention: Diane Bynum.

What is the deadline for nominations?

All nominations for Small Business Person of the Year must be postmarked or hand delivered to SBA Washington Metropolitan Area District Office no later than November 14, 2008.

What information must the nomination package contain?

Nominations must be typewritten on one side of 8 1/2” x 11” white stationery, collated and secured in a 1 1/2” binder. Incomplete nomination packages will not be considered. All evaluation/selection criteria must be specifically addressed. A complete nomination package will also include, in the following order:

1. A single cover page with —

- the nominee's full name, title, business and home addresses with telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address if applicable;
 - the award for which the nomination is being made;
 - the nominator's name, title, place of business, business address and telephone number and e-mail address if applicable;
 - type of SBA assistance received (e.g., loan, SCORE counseling, SBDC assistance, etc.); and
 - a one-paragraph description of the nominee's business.
2. A completed background form (SBA Form 3300, Award Nomination Form) which will be made available through SBA field offices. For "team" nominations for Small Business Person of the Year, a background form is required for each team member.
 3. An original 8" x 10" or 5" x 7" photo of the nominee; or a digital photo – at least 300 dpi; photocopies are not acceptable.
 4. Four to five additional photos of the nominee's company and employees at work.
 5. A nomination letter, to include a concise statement of the qualities and performance that merit the award, not to exceed four pages.
 6. A brief biography of the nominee, not to exceed one page.
 7. A business profile, not to exceed one page.
 8. The nominee's financial statement — including balance sheets, profit-and-loss statements and financial reports — not exceeding 12 pages, on 8 1/2" x 11" paper - for the last three years.
 9. Any other supporting documentation deemed significant by the nominator, including news clips, letters of recommendation and other evidence of the appropriateness of the nomination. Supporting documentation must not exceed 10 pages. Videos will not be considered.
 10. A completed SBA Form 2137 Award Nomination Consent Form, which will be made available through SBA field offices.

What are the selection procedures for this award?

Small Business Persons of the Year Award winners will be selected at the district (in multi-district states), state and national levels. In those states served by more than one SBA district office, additional awards may also be given at the district level. Winners are selected by a panel of judges. Winners at each level will be considered for awards at the next highest level. Nomination packages for each state winner will be sent to regional SBA offices and prepared for transmittal to the SBA's Office of Communications and Public Liaison for review. The National Small Business Person of the Year will be selected by the SBA Administrator based on the recommendations of the Agency's National Small Business Week panel of judges. The winner will be announced during National Small Business Week. Non-federal employees serving as judges must sign a conflict of interest/non-disclosure certification.
